He Will Es a Presidential Candidate at Chicago.

MR. CLEVELAND NOT IN IT.

The President Will Soon Make Known That He Is Not a Caudidate For P.c-Election-The President Witting That Succeed IIlm in Office.

Washington, March 17.—Secretary Carlisle is a candidate for the presidential nomination at Chieago and a public announcement to that effect will soon friends in the senate. This unnouncement, however, will not be made until his purpose not to permit his name to be used in the convention in connection with a third term. It is learned on exdetermination within a short time. Although Secretary Olney's name has been considered with favor by Democratic leaders, it is known that he does not desire the nomination.

It is undoubtedly true that Mr. Carlisle's eandidaey will have the support of Mr. Cleveland and the members of the eabinet. He will go before the convention as the representative of the "sound money" views of the administration. His friends in conducting the canvass for Mr. Carlisle's nomination, will urge that it be made on the sound money platform, and if he be successful at Chicago, will then make his issue prominent in the campaign leading up to the November elections.

Representative Patterson of Tennessee has received from Secretary Carlisle the following letter in response to ex-Speaker Crisp's declaration that silver had received unfriendly treatment at the secretary's hands.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, WASHINGTON, March 16. Hon. Josiah Patterson, House of Repre-

MY DEAR SIR-Your favor of Feb. 17 was duly received and ought to have been answered at once, but the pressure of oilicial business has compelled me to delay a response until now. You state that in a speech delivered by Hon. Charles F. Crisp in the house of representatives, on the 14th day of February, that gentieman said: "He (menning the secretary of the treasury) refuses to give silver for gold because he must hold the sliver to pay the sliver der the act of 1890, and when a Sherman note as issued under the net of 1890 is prosented he redecus it in gold and not in silver. What mockery is this; what sort of friendly treatment is accorded sliver by this law and the practice that obtains at the treasury of the United States?'

And you ask me to "state fully how you (I) have dealt with the silver currency since your (my) incumbency of the oilice of secretary of the treasury, and whether you (I) have, in dealing with the subject, discredited sliver?"

In answer to your question I can only say that in all the operations of the treasnry department during my administration of its affairs the legal tender gold and silver coins of the United States have been treated precisely alike, except that greater efforts have been made to keep sliver coln in circulation than have been made to keep gold coln in circulation.

The amount pald out by the department in sliver coins and silver certificates greatly exceeds the amount pald out in gold colns and gold certificates, and in no instance has the least discrimination been made against silver or its paper representative. In no instances has silver or sliver certificates been refused in payment of a debt or demand due the government, and in no instance has the government refused to pay silver colns or silver certificates in discharge of its obligations when the holders of the obligations demanded or requested such payment.

When United States notes or treasury notes are presented for redemption gold is paid if it is demanded, and if sliver is demanded silver is paid. Thus the coins of the two methis are treated exactly alike in making payments by the government, as well as in the discharge of debts due to the government. It has always been the policy of the treasury department to encourage the use of silver to the largest possible extent, and in order to accomplish this, standard silver dollars will be sent by express, at the expense of the government, to any one who will deposit nn equivalent amount in silver certificates or In treasury notes of 1890 with the United States treasurer or any assistant treasnrer, or with a national bank depository, and subsidlary silver coins will be sent by express at the expense of the government to any one who will deposit with such officers or banks any kinds of United States enrrency or national bank notes; but gold is not sent to anybody free of

In August, 1893, there was a great and unusual demand in nearly every part of the country for currency of small denom-Inations, and In Its attempts to supply this demand the treasury department pald ont, in defraying the expenses of the government and in exchange for other forms of currency all the silver that could be lawfully used for these purposes, so that for a short period it was compelled to suspend payment in standard silver dollars, except in the redemption of sllver cortificates and treasury notes of 1890. The law authorizing the issue of silver certificates upon deposits of silver provides that "the coln deposited for, or representing the certificates, shall ye retnined in the treasury for the payment of the same on demand.

CARLISE IN THE RACE It is therefore plain that whenever the amount of silver dollars in the treasury does not exceed the amount of silver cer tlficates outstanding, the secretary of the treasury can not, without a violation of iaw, pay out such sllver except for the redemption of certificates. At such times he has no more right to exchange silver dollars for gold than he has to pay them out in any other manner. But there is also another fund in the trensury which is required by law to be held for a different purpose. It consists of the bullion and the standard silver dollars coined from the bullion purchased under the act of His Secretary of the Tressury Should July 14, 1890. That act provides for the purchase of silver bulllon at the market price and the issue of treasury notes in payment for it, and it also declares that "no greater or less amount of such notes shall be ontstanding at any time than the cost of the silver buillon and the standard be made by one of the secretary's close stiver dollars coincd therefrom, then held in the trensury purchased by such notes.'

Under this provision the secretary is re-President Cleveland has formally stated | quired to keep in the treasury at all times an amount of silver buillon, at its cost price, and in standard silver dollars colned from the purchased buillon exactly equal to the amount of treasury notes cellent authority that the president has ontstanding, and he can not, therefore, fully decided upon this course, and it is lawfully use such standard silver dollars expected that he will make known his except for the redemption and cancellation of treasury notes.

My letter to the United States senate, upon which Mr. Crisp's statement seems to have been based, was written on the 17th day of August, 1893, and at that time there was no free sllver in the treasury; that is, there were no standard silver dollars in the treasury except such as the law required to be held for the redemption of silver certificates and the treasury notes of 1890, and these redemptions were made at all times during the month and every other month when these certlileates of currency were presented. During the month of August, 1893, treasury notes to the amount of $1,273,267 were redeemed in sliver and cancelled, and since the tst day of August, 1893, the total amount of such notes redeemed in silver is $19,533,722. Prior to my administration of the affairs of the department none of these notes had been redeemed in silver or cancelled.

Since the beginning of this administratlon nearly $110,000,000 in gold has been procured in exchange for other forms of currency. Of this amount $8,915,812 has been produced in exchange for silver coin, and $t0,329,330 in exchange for silver certlfleates. The department has never refused to exchange silver for gold when it had silver that could be lawfully used for that purpose, and If It had so refused I nm wholly unable to see how it could be considered a discrimination against silver. Is a refusal to pay out gold in exchange for silver a discrimination against gold? If not, it of course follows that a refusal to pay out silver for gold is not a discrimination against sliver.

h In response to your verbal inquiry concerning the coinage of standard silver dollars during the present administration, you are advised that it amounts to the snm of $6,762,000 up to the 15th day of this mouth, while the whole amount of such dollars colned in this country from the establishment of the mint in 1792 np to Febrnary, 1878, a period of 86 years, was $5,-

I enclose herewith a copy of my letter to the United states senate referred to above. Very truly yours,

J. G. CARLISIS.

Dr. Delgado says that u anmber of the employes of the Delgado plantation near Bainoa, have been killed by the troops, including the brothers Tipia und the two Guerras, father and son.

The circumstances in the case, so far as they can be gathered at present, seem to point to a most gross and deliberate outrage upon the part of the Spauish soldiery, who were made aware that Mr. Delgado and his aged father were both American citizens. But this fact appears to have had no weight with the Spanish officers and Mr. Delgado is said to have been bound and shot without trial and without any justification. Ills Owo Futher.

LANCASTER, Pa., March 17 .- The citizens of this town were startled vesterday afternoon by the arrest of William Miller, aged 28, for the miriter of his father, William Miller, 70 years old, on Jan. 25, when the Champion forge and blower works were destroyed by five and the aged man's remains were found in the ruins. Charles Tinker was arrested as an accomplice.

The arrests were made by Detective S. A. Elwell of New York who has been working on the case since the beginning of February. Previous to the date of the allege crimes of arson and murder, the town had been terrorized by numerous incendiary fires, and no trace of the guilty ones could be found. The lire at the Champion works caused a loss of $60,000. At the time the old watchman, Miller's father, could not be found. Three days later his charred body was found among the debris of the burned building. The position of the healy gays rise to suspicious of found the body gave rise to suspicions of foul play, and an investigation was begun by the local police who offered a reward of $500 for the capture of the perpetrator of the double crime. This was doubled by the owners of the works. There seemed to be a general absence of clews and the police apparently had accomplished but little when the surprise came yesterday in the arrest of Miller and Tinker.

Detective Elwell, who has been quietly working up the case, says he has con-clusive evidence against Miller. It is said the accused son bears a bad reputation, and has been involved in previous scrapes of a most serious character. It is alleged that he was seen in the vicinity of the fire 10 minutes before an alarm was sounded, without any money, while a short time later he had plenty of money and spent it freely.

It is further alleged that a few nights before the tragedy he was heard to say if the "old man" did not give him money he would knock him in the head. The old watchman is known to have carried considerable money on his person at all times, and his accused son is said to have carried $170 insurance on his father's life. Two weeks ago he is alleged to have started for the home of H. K. Kaiper, one of the officers of the works, with the avowed intenton of "doing him up," but was intercepted on the way, and kept from carrying out his design. He was in the United States navy at one time, but deserted. He was preparing to leave town when arrested.

REPUBLICANS believe in Dayonet rule,

Oh what a record Kentucky Republicans are making!

Bradley's Presidential boom has collapsed,-if it ever really existed.

Now let Governor Bradley resign and step out. He has brought disgrace enough to Kentucky already.

Ten out of twelve county conventions in Missonri instructed for McKinley for President, and not one for Bradley.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY has been boss of the Kentucky Republicans so long that he now imagines he owns the State and has the right to usurp all power.

REPUBLICAN conventions in New York, Morton's home State, are instructing for McKinley. Wouldn't be surprised if some of the conventions in Bradley's home State did likewise.

THE indignation of the people of Frankfort over the action of Governor Bradley in calling out the troops culminated before noon Monday in a meeting at which the Governor was denounced, his action being characterized as "a usurpation of authority and an insult to the people of the Commonwealth." The people of Frankfort are as well acquainted with the condition of affairs there as Governor | Ktair, Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms of the Bradley, and it is not strange that they Schate, brought word from Lexington are so incensed over his action.

THE reports from Frankfort indicate that Governor Bradley allowed the sensational correspondent of the Commercial Gazette to so work on his fears that he finally imagined the Democratic lawmakers were on the point of siezing him and thrusting him into some dark and his note was based simply and solely on dismal dungeon. The troops were at "rumor." But it served to frighten the once called out. The correspondent is Governor almost out of his boots and the no doubt laughing in his sleeve now at his success in making such a fool of the Governor. And Bradley is no doubt regretting his hasty action.

WHAT HAVE REPUBLICANS DONE "With great flourish of trumpets the Republicans, who hold vast majority in the House of Representatives and organized the Senate of the United States, told the people of this country what they proposed to do," remarks the Chicago Chronicle.

"Well, what have they done? In session since the first day of December last, what have they done? May we not have some specification? They professed themselves to be wonderfully gifted in the matter of creating public confidence. increasing public revenues, making everybody, whatever his business and however conducted, rich and happy, But what have they done? UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

Sensatio al State of Affairs Existing at Frankfort, Kentucky.

FRANKFORT, March 17 .- Yesterday's sensation in the senatorial contest flashed in the pan. Bitter talk and a fruitless ballot tells the story, and those features have been present every day since the fight began. The scenes, however, had a different setting and to the dramatis personae were added about 400 blue coats from Louisville, Lexington and Frankfort. The salutory effect of the this military display does not appear on the surface because the reason for its presence was apprehension and not the existence of violence.

Three companies of the state guard took up their position on the statehouse grounds yesterday morning, and the Kentucky legislators filed through picket lines to their meeting places in the cap-The presence of this armed force was the subject of immerous resolutions and acrimonious debate in both houses before and after the joint session. The senate, by a strict party vote, adopted a resolution reciting the action of Governor Bradley in calling out the militia, which was declared to be "without warrant of law, necessity or justification, and appointing a committee headed by Senator Goebel to "inquire into such contempt breach of privilege," and report to the senate for final action. This was adopted as a substitute for a resolution offered by Senator Bronson, violently denouncing Governor Bradley, and declaring the purpose of the senate to suspend all legislation while the military guard remained in possession of the capitol.

The house got into a tangle over a number of resolutions offered by both sides all of which were finally withdrawn.

At the joint session one ballot for United States senator was taken to fulfill legal requirements, after the Demo-erats and Populist Poor had broken a quorum by refusing to respond to roll-

GLENNY GLASS CO. VS. TAYLOR.

Opinion of the Court of Appeals Reversing a Case From Bracken County.

In reversing the case of the William Glenny Glass Company versus Taylor, taken up from Bracken County, the Court of Appeals says:

First-The law of the place of payment does not necessarily govern the rate of interest which may be contracted for. It is a question of intention, and all the facts must be considered in order to determine what law the parties looked te as controlling their rights under the contract.

Where a note was signed by the principal obiigor in the District of Columbia and sent by him to Kentucky, where it was signed by the surety, who mailed it to the payee In NewYork City, the note then being assigned by the payee to the plaintiff for the purpose of raising money for the principat, although the note was made payable in New York, its validity will be determined by the law of Kentucky, where it was fully exeented, and therefore, although the note recites that It is to bear 8 per eent. Interest, the New York statute providing for the forfeiture of both principal and interest where more than 6 per cent. interest is contracted for, will not control. Second-The court will presume, in the absence of plea and proof to the contrary, that the note was valid under the law of the place where it was exceuted by the principal obligor. Third-Although this was an ordinary action submitted to the court without the intervention of a jury, and there was no separation by the court of its conclusions of law and fact, yet, in the absence of any evidence to support the defense, a judgment for defendant must be reversed, although if the evidence were conflicting the judgment would be affirmed, the ease being disposed of as if it had been tried by a jury and the instructions were omitted from the record. Fourth-A motion by plaintiff to discontinue the case came too late after submission, and was therefore properly overruled.

Ed. Daum, H. C. Weaver and Wm. H. Holt lor appellant; Thomas H. Hines and George Doniphan for appellee.

SEEMS as If consumption always picks out the brightest and best. Fully one-sixth of all the deaths that occur in the world are eaused by consumption. Many things were once considered impossible. It would be strange if medical seience did not make some progress. The telegraph and telephone, the photograph, the electrie light-all were once impossible, and once it was impossible to cure consumption. This was before the time of Dr. Pleree's Golden Medical Discovery. Taken according to directions, this standard remedy will cure 98 per cent, of all cases of consumption. Consumption is caused and fostered by impurity in the blood. It is cured by purity and richness in the bloodsurely, certainly cured by the "Medical Disovery." It louids up solid healthy liesh and rigorous strength.

Dr. Pieree's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 100s page medical work, profusely iliustrated, will be sent free on receipt of 21 one cent stamps to cover postage only. Address, World's Dis pensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanlsh before proper ef-forts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts— rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of slekness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrap of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If In the enjoyment of good health

If ln the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
